Being an Early Bird definitely pays off... and it's ON NOW!

BONANZA REWARD POINTS = CASH!

Bonanza Reward Points	Regular Cash Redemption (RPR) Points	Early Bird Bonus (EBB) (Period: 29 Oct-23 Dec 2011)	Total Bonanza Commission (RPR + EBB)
For every 50 Points	USD 150	USD 50	USD 200
For every 100 Points	USD 500	USD 100	USD 600

Here is an example to break it down for you:

Imagine you earn a total of 100 Bonanza Reward Points, of which 50 Bonanza Reward Points were earned during the Early Bird Period. Your final Bonanza with a BANG! pay-out will be: USD 550

Computation:

Total reward points achieved = 100 reward points (i.e. 50 points during Early Bird Period and 50 points after the Early Bird Period)

Cash Redemption for 100 reward points = $500

Early bird bonus for 50 reward points = $50

Therefore: total Bonanza Commission = (Cash redemption for 500 points) + (Early bird bonus)

$$= (550) + (50)$$

$$= $550$$

Note: The total early bird commission for 50 reward points ($200) will be paid earlier which is two weeks after the early bird period and the remaining balance ($350) will be paid at the end of the promo period.

Example 2: If an IR achieved 50 reward points during the Early Bird Period, how much will he get? He will get a pay-out worth $200.

Computation:

Total reward points achieved is 50 points

Cash redemption for 50 reward points = $150

Early bird bonus for 50 reward points = $50

Therefore: total Bonanza Commission = (Cash redemption for 50 points) + (Early bird bonus)

$$= (150) + (50)$$

$$= $200$$

Example 3: If an IR achieved 70 reward points during Early Bird period and another 40 points during the regular promo period, how much cash will he get?

The IR will get $550

Computation:

Total reward points achieved is 110 reward points

Cash redemption for 100 reward points is $500

Early Bird Bonus for 50 reward points is $50

Therefore: total Bonanza Commission = (Cash redemption for 50 points) + (Early bird bonus)

$$= (500) + (50)$$

$$= $550$$

Excess 10 reward points will be forfeited at the end of the promo period.
